

Tourism Booms!!

A multi-flow map to show the causes and effects of tourism in Wales

Tourists come to Wales to enjoy the stunning coastline.

Tourist areas are noisy and busy in the Summer months.

Increase in employment— more jobs for local people.

Tourists come to Wales to go walking in the mountains.

Improvements are made to the Environment.

Tourists are attracted to areas of natural beauty.

Tourists rent holiday homes so there are fewer houses for the locals to buy

Tourists come to Wales for a good time.

More shops, hotels and restaurants open up.

Tourists want to find out about the language of Wales.

Higher prices are charged in shops in tourist areas.

There is an increase in crime during the holiday season.

Road and rail links are improved in tourist areas.

Tourists come to Wales to visit the historical monuments.